

Changing your shoes for a day has a bigger impact than you think!

Team Day $2,000

Trade in those fancy shoes and lace up your boots....let's get busy building a house!

HOW TO GET STARTED:

- 1 Invite us to your next staff meeting to give you all the details.
- 2 We'll provide you with fundraising ideas to get those creative juices flowing!
- 3 Book your day on the build!

TD Financial Group is one of our annual $10,000 Community Builders. Join them in making London a better place to live one house at a time.

- Up to 10 of your staff join us on our build site for a day. Lunch, snacks and refreshments included!
- We provide free access to online Health & Safety training for all participants.
- A unique environment to foster team building skills transferrable to the workplace.
- Your team will be photographed as a group & individually throughout the day. Photo downloads available daily via our website.
- Your staff can meet & network with other team day sponsors and volunteers.
- Your company name will be mentioned in the morning announcements on-site.
- Company name on site signage
- A company invitation to attend our House Dedication ceremony.
- And the best benefit of all.....when your weary head hits the pillow that evening, you'll know you did something quite extraordinary that day!
